Reinie Is Losing Interest in Game, Says Tinker—Fined $50.

YANKS AT HOME, PLAY TWO GAMES TO-DAY

Heinie Zimmerman, Bronx product, star third baseman of the Cubs for numerous years and National League batting champion in 1912, is on the market. Joe Tinker, manager of the Heiniekins, is willing to talk business with any one who would like to have Zimmerman on his club and is willing to swap good players for him.

Tinker says Heinie is losing interest in the game and especially in the welfare of the Cubs. Zimmerman also got in a jam with his manager for neglecting to show up for morning practice and the differences between the pair recently reached an acute stage when Tinker fined Heinie $50.

When the Cubs were playing on the Polo grounds stories that would not do were passed around to the effect that all was not harmonious between Zimmerman and the Cub boss. Heinie laid off two days with a stone break, but Tinker saw him walking around without a limp and ordered him to play the last game. Since the Cubs moved over to Brooklyn there has been new developments in the Tinker-Zimmerman feud until Joe has announced that Heinie is on the market.

The Giants were very anxious to get Zimmerman at one time, but with Herzog on third they would not have any room for him. Brooklyn could use him handsily at either short or second. Zimmerman has been with the Cubs since 1917, but did not play regularly until 1911.

Yankers Back Home.

The Yankers got back from their disastrous Western trip yesterday. Most of the players watched the Giants maul up the Cardinals. Despite their defeat of losing fourteen out of fifteen games in the West the team is not without hope and is expected to start a new drive against the Athletics to-day. No team could be more welcome at this time. The men point out that they are only a few days away from Red Sox and that in such a close race most anything might happen.

Donovan expects to have both High and Magee back to-day and will likely use Magee on second. He is in town yesterday, but Wild Bird does not expect him to get back in harness before another fortnight. Donovan said he was forced to play John P. M. in the last game in Cleveland simply because he had no one else. He says Fritz could have been thrown the ball to the infield had he been forced to make a throw.

The club plays two with the Athletics to-day. Young Shocker may be given a chance to show what he can do against Mack's "terrible" team. Today's Polo Grounds bargain card is a regular caused double header and was not caused by any postponed game.

No Flash in the Pan.

The winning streak recently compiled by the Browns gives evidence that the Mound City boys have found all club alphas in the West. The Yankers and the Athletics together with the Senators, fell easiest now appear to be the weakest. In their string of fourteen consecutive victories the Browns made sixty runs, or an average of approximately six per game. The Browns started their first Polo Grounds in the latter part of July and will appear to be going strong. However, the impending road trip should prove the real worth of the team. From the depths of seventh place the Browns, within two weeks, have advanced into a tie with Detroit for fourth position.

Closest Race Ever in A. L.

Figures prove that this year's pennant race in the American League is the closest in the history of the organization. On August 1 seven of the clubs in the American League are within one game of the first place. The Yankees, who are in the lead, are only one game ahead of the Athletics. The Senators, who are in the lead, are only one game ahead of the Athletics. The Senators, who are in the lead, are only one game ahead of the Athletics.

WUXHTRATH ATHLETICS WIN!

Philadelphia, Aug. 11.—(National.)—The Athletics won the final game of the season, 5 to 3, against the Philadelphia Phillies. The Athletics won the game in the ninth inning, when they scored three runs. The Athletics won the game in the ninth inning, when they scored three runs.

CUBAN STARS VS. LINCOLNS.

Olympic stars will be the scene of an excellent athletic contest on Sunday, when the Cuban Stars A and the Lincoln Athletic Club will meet at the Polo Grounds. The Cuban Stars are traveling at top speed now and should make things interesting for the Lincoln Athletic Club.
